

Out of the deep

Thomas Tomkins
(1572-1656)

A.

T.  Out of the deep have I call - ed to thee,

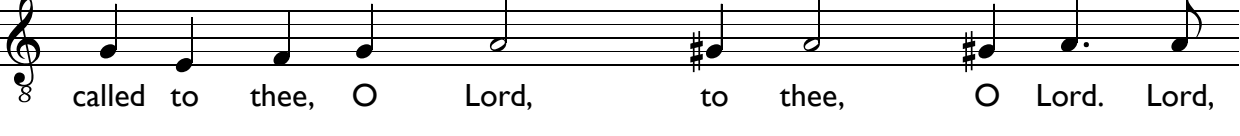

B.  Out of the deep have I call - ed to thee, O Lord,

 Out of the deep have I call - ed to O Lord, un - to thee, O Lord, out - of the deep have I un - to thee, O Lord, O Lord, thee, O Lord, have I call - ed to thee, O Lord.

 called to thee, O Lord, to thee, O Lord. Lord, have I call - ed to thee, O Lord. Lord,

 Lord, hear my voice, Lord, hear my voice, hear my voice, Lord, hear my voice, Lord, hear my

 hear my voice, Lord, hear my voice, Lord hear my

Lord, hear my voice, Lord, hear my voice, voice, Lord, hear my voice, Lord, hear my voice, Lord, hear my voice, Lord, hear my Lord, hear my voice, Lord, hear my voice, Lord, hear my voice, Lord, hear my

 voice, Lord, hear my voice, Lord, hear my voice.

 voice. O let thine ears con - sid - er, con - voice. O let thine ears con - let thine ears con - sid - er well, con - sid - sid - er well, con - sid - er well the voice of my sid - er well, con - sid - er well, con - sid - er well, O let thine ears con - sid - er com - - plaint, the voice, the voice of my com - er well the voice, con - well, thine ears con - sid - er well the plaint, the voice of my com - - plaint, sid - er well, con - sid - er well voice of my com - plaint, the voice of the voice of my com - plaint, of my my com - plaint, the voice of my com - plaint, of my com - plaint, the voice of com - plaint, the voice of my

com - plaint, of my com - plaint, the voice of
 my com - plaint, the voice of my
 com - plaint, the voice of my com - plaint, the voice my com - plaint, of my com - plaint, the

 com - plaint, the voice of my com - plaint, the voice of my com - plaint, of my com - plaint, voice of my complaint.

 of my complaint.
 of my complaint.