

David Hill's arrangement of "God rest you merry, gentlemen" is wonderful but not easy, and the lower parts may find it difficult to fit the words of vv 3 and 4 to the harmony. I have therefore written out the text of verses 3 and 4 of the carol with the text between the lines of music. If you own legal copies of this piece, e.g. in the collection "Noel", I will gladly send you the file.
