

We sing of God, the mighty source

Christopher Smart
(1722-1771)

Hymnal 1982 no 386, Melody: Cornwall

S. S. Wesley
(1810-1876)

1. We sing of God, the might - y source of
2. Tell them I AM, the Lord God said, to
3. Glo - rious the sun in mid ca - reer; glo -
4. Glo - rious, most glo - rious, is the crown of all things; the stu - pen - dous force on which all strength de - pends;

Mo - ses while on earth in dread and smit - ten to the heart,
rious th' as - sem - bled fires ap - pear; glo - rious the com - et's train:
him that brought sal - va - tion down by meek - ness, Ma - ry's son;

from whose right arm, be - neath whose eyes, all at once, a - bove, be - neath, a - round, all glo - rious the trum - pet and a - larm; glo - seers that stu - pen - dous truth be - lieved, and

pe - riod, pow'r, and en - ter - prise com - men - ces, reigns, and ends.
na - ture with - out voice or sound re - plied, O Lord, thou art.
rious th' al - might - y stretched - out arm; glo - rious th' en - rap - tured main:
now the match - less deed's a - chieved, de - ter - mined, dared, and done.