

We sing of God, the mighty source

Christopher Smart
(1722-1771)

Hymnal 1982 no 387, Melody: Magdalen College

William Hayes
(1706-1777)

1. We sing of God, the might - y source of all things;
2. Tell them I AM, the Lord God said, to Mo - ses
3. Glo - rious the sun in mid ca - reer; glo - rious th' as -
4. Glo - rious, most glo - rious, is the crown of him that the stu - pen - dous force on which all strength de - pends;

while on earth in dread and smit - ten to the heart, sem - bled fires ap - pear; glo - rious the com - et's train:
brought sal - va - tion down by meek - ness, Ma - ry's son;

from whose right arm, be - neath whose eyes, all pe - riod, at once, a - bove, be - neath, a - round, all na - ture glo - rious the trum - pet and a - larm; glo - rious th' al - seers that stu - pen - dous truth be - lieved, and now the pow'r, and en - ter - prise com - men - ces, reigns, and ends.

with - out voice or sound re - plied, O Lord, thou art.
might - y stretched-out arm; glo - rious th' en - rap - tured main:
match-less deed's a - chieved, de - ter - mined, dared, and done.