

AMNS 130 Where high the heavenly temple stands

M. Bruce

Melody: Wareham

W. Knapp

(1746-1767)

(1698-1768)

1. Where high the heav'n - ly tem - ple stands, the house of
2. He who for men their sure - ty stood, and poured on
3. Though now as - cend - ed up on high, he bends on 4. In ev - 'ry pang that rends the heart the Man of
5. With bold - ness there - fore at the throne let us make God not made with hands, a great High Priest our earth his pre - cious blood, pur - sues in heav'n his earth a bro - ther's eye; par - ta - ker of the Sor - rows had a part; he sym - pa - thi - zes all our sor - rows known; and ask the aid of na - ture wears, the guar - dian of man - kind ap - pears.

might - y plan, the Sa - viour and the Friend of man.
hu - man name, he knows the frail - ty of our frame.
with our grief, and to the suf - f'rer sends re - lief.
heav'n - ly pow'r to help us in the e - vil hour.