

AMNS 183 He wants not friends that hath thy love

Melody: Invitation (Devonshire)

Richard Baxter
(1615-1691)

Melody by J. F. Lampe
(1703-1751)

1. He wants not friends that hath thy love, and
2. In the blest fel - low - ship of saints is
3. As for my friends, they are not lost; the
4. Still we are cen - tred all in thee, mem -
5. Be - fore thy throne we dai - ly meet as
6. The heav'n - ly hosts, world with - out end, shall may con - verse and walk with thee, and with thy saints here wis - dom, safe - ty, and de - light; and when my heart de - sev - 'ral ves - sels of thy fleet, though part - ed now, by bers, though dis - tant, of one Head; in the same fa - mi - joint - pe - ti - tion - ers to thee; in spi - rit we each be my com - pa - ny a - bove; and thou, my best and

and a - bove, with whom for ev - er I must be.
clines and faints, it's rais - ed by their heat and light.
tem - pests tost, shall safe - ly in the ha - ven meet.
ly we be, by the same faith and spi - rit led.
o - ther greet, and shall a - gain each o - ther see.
sur - est Friend, who shall di - vide me from thy love?