

AMNS 183 He wants not friends that hath thy love

Melody: Uffingham

Richard Baxter
(1615-1691)

Jeremiah Clarke
(c. 1673-1707)

1. He wants not friends that hath thy love, and may con -
2. In the blest fel - low - ship of saints is wis - dom,
3. As for my friends, they are not lost; the sev - 'ral
4. Still we are cen - tred all in thee, mem - bers, though
5. Be - fore thy throne we dai - ly meet as joint - pe -
6. The heav'n - ly hosts, world with - out end, shall be my verse and walk with thee, and with thy saints here and a - safe - ty, and de - light; and when my heart de - clines and ves - sels of thy fleet, though part - ed now, by tem - pests dis - tant, of one Head; in the same fa - mi - ly we ti - tion - ers to thee; in spi - rit we each o - ther

com - pa - ny a - bove; and thou, my best and sur - est

bove, with whom for ev - er I must be.
faints, it's rais - ed by their heat and light.
tost, shall safe - ly in the ha - ven meet.
be, by the same faith and spi - rit led.
greet, and shall a - gain each o - ther see.
Friend, who shall di - vide me from thy love?