tr. J. Ellerton (1828-1893)

P. C. Buck
(1871-1947)

1. Sing al - le - lu - ia forth in du - teous praise, ye ci - ti - zens
2. Ye pow'rs who stand be - fore the e - ter - nal Light, in hymn - ing choirs
3. The ho - ly ci - ty shall take up your strain, and with glad songs
4. In bliss - ful an - ti - phons ye thus re - joice to ren - der to 5. Ye who have gained at length your palms in bliss, vic - to - rious ones, of heav'n; O sweet-ly raise an end-less al - le - lu - ia.

re - e - cho to the height
re - sound - ing wake a - gain the Lord with thank - ful voice your chant shall still be this:

6. There, in one grand ac - claim, for ev - er ring the strains which tell
7. This is sweet rest for wea - ry ones brought back, this is glad food
8. While thee, by whom were all things made, we praise for ev - er, and 9. Al - might - y Christ, to thee our voi - ces sing glo - ry for ev -

the hon - our of your King: an end-less al - le - lu - ia.
and drink which ne'er shall lack:
tell out in sweet - est lays er - more; to thee we bring an end-less al - le - lu - ia. A - men.
