1. Glo - ry in high - est hea - ven to our ex - alt - ed Sa - viour,
2. Loud - er than ga - thered wa - ters, or burst - ing peals of thun - der,
3. An - gels in fixed a - maze - ment a - round our al - tars hov - er, who left be - hind for all man - kind these to - kens of his fa - vour:

we lift our voice and speak our joys, and shout our lov - ing won - der.
with ea - ger gaze a - dore the grace of our e - ter - nal Lo - ver:

his bleed - ing love and mer - cy, his all - re - deem - ing pas - sion; Shout, all our el - der breth - ren, while we re - cord the sto - ry him - self and all his ful - ness who gives to the be - liev - er; who here dis - plays, and gives the grace which brings us our sal - va - tion.

of him that came and suf - fered shame, to car - ry us to glo - ry.
and by this bread who - e'er are fed shall live with God for ev - er.
