(1855-1932)

Tyrolean melody

1. A Man there lived in Gal-i - lee un - like all men be - fore,
2. A Man there died on Cal - va - ry a - bove all o - thers brave;
3. A Man there reigns in glo - ry now, di - vine, yet hu - man still;

for he a - lone from first to last our flesh un - sul - lied wore;
his fel-low - men he saved and blessed, him - self he scorned to save.
that hu-man which is all di - vine death sought in vain to kill.

a per - fect life of per - fect deeds once to the world was shown,
No thought can gauge the weight of woe on him, the sin - less, laid;
All pow'r is his; su - preme he rules the realms of time and space;

that all man-kind might mark his steps and in them plant their own.
we on - ly know that with his blood our ran-som price was paid.
yet still our hu - man cares and needs find in his heart a place.
