(1805-1876)

1. God from on high hath heard: let sighs and sor-rows cease.
2. Hark, through the si - lent night an - ge - lic voi - ces swell;
3. See how the shep-herd - band speed on with ea - ger feet;
4. But O what sight ap - pears with - in that low - ly door:

Lo, from the op - 'ning heav'n de - scends to man the pro - mised peace.
their joy - ful songs pro - claim that God is born on earth to dwell.
come to the hal - lowed cave with them the ho - ly babe to greet.
a man-ger, stall, and swadd - ling clothes, a child, and moth - er poor.

5. Art thou the Christ? the Son? the Fa - ther's im - age bright?
6. Yea, faith can pierce the cloud which veils thy glo - ry now;
7. Our sin - ful pride to cure with that pure love of thine, and see we him whose arm up - holds earth and the star - ry height?

we hail thee God, be - fore whose throne the an - gels pro - strate bow.
O be thou born with - in our hearts, most ho - ly Child di - vine.
